COVID-19: Your benefits compliance questions answered

If you were unable to attend the webcast on March 25, 2020, you can listen to a replay and access the handouts by clicking the links below.

We regret that, due to overwhelming strain on the WebEx platform and limitations on the size of the audience we were able to accommodate, not everyone who registered was able to join the live presentations. To do our best to accommodate everyone, we presented the webcast twice but regret that even then some registrants were not able to join. We will explore other options in the future to ensure that all registrants are able to join the live presentation.
